OSAWATOMIE GRAPHIC.

VOLUME XXII

OSAWATOMIE, MIAMI COUNTY, KANSAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1 1910

NUMBER 26

ROOSEVELT INSURGES

In His Speech "New Nationalism," Roosevelt Outlines Progressive Policies for Government. Compares the Anti-Slavery Struggle to Insurgency.

Over 30,000 People Cheer the Ex-President and Whistles Scream a Noisy Welcome as the Roosevelt Special Puffed Into Osawatomie. Reception, Luncheon at State Hospital at Noon, Dedica tory Services. Theodore Roosevelt's Speech, and Then-Well, Teddy Goes to Lawrence to Sleep

Written Wednesday.

Wilewi and here it is. This is Osawalomie's great day. If the town hand bitten of a larger chew than it can successfully masticate, that mouthful is budging its jaw somewha. Bud we like it, yes siring the pouring into the town, but there is all out of dors, as one of our visions said.

The crowd began to come in from the four directions early in the week. They have been coming on the bedieation, services, and the week affections and the from the four directions early in the week. They have been coming on the year, they have been coming on the bedieation is served to about two hundred, lake the spirits and every manner of ways possible. Singly, in pairs of ways possible, Singly, in pairs and by the down. elock, when he was escorted to the Masonic Temple, where a short in formal preception was held until visit 12:30.

A party made up of Mr. Rossivel and his party, the governor and his staff, the department commission of the G. A. R. and her staff, and some of the commission of the W. R. G. and her staff, and some of the commission of the wear partial of the commission of the wear partial of the commission of the wear partial of the staff. He president of the W. R. G. and her staff, and some of the commission of the W. R. G. and her staff, and some of the commission of the wear partial of the same of renee, to Sleep.

T stand for the square deal, e But when I say I am for the square in deaf I mean not merely that I stand for fair play under the press. I stand for having those rules changed as ea et work for a more subset of the standard equality of opportunity, and of reward for equally sood service.

This means that our governments, National and State, must be freed from the sinister influence or, control of special inferests."

"There can be no e-freetive roin tool of corporations while their positional tool of corporations. To put an end to it will neither be a short nor easy task, but it can be done."

"It has become entirely clear that we must have Governent supportation of the capitalization and only of public service corporations including particularly railways but of all corporation doing an interstanding particularly railways but of all corporations, in the standard of the railways if it can be possibly be avoided, and the only alternative is thoroughgoing and effective regulation, which shall be based on the full knowledge of all the facts, lightfulling a physical valuation is not needed, or at least is very rarely needed, for fixing rates; but it is needed as the basis of honest eapitalization."

"Good clitzonship means progress and therefore all good clitzens should stand for progress, and must be progressive."

Speaking of the struggle of John Brown and his handful of men for the adolshing of slavery in Kansas and over the country, Roose-vell said:

"I do not speak of this struggle of the play meeter the the should should stand for progress, and must be progressive."

